ASQC ASSISTS FAMILIES WITH COSTS AGAIN IN 2017

Autism Society of the Quad Cities will continue our program that assists both children and adults on the spectrum with expense associated with autism and its effects.

Examples of eligible expenses fees for children include occupational therapy and speech therapy, medication, counseling fees, or registration for therapeutic activities like Challenger Little League or Davenport Junior Theatre's "Theatre on the Spectrum" program.

For adults, eligible costs include medication, bus passes, or the cost of books for students enrolled in post-high school college classes or training.

Reimbursement is limited to $250 per person per year.

In order to be reimbursed, the individual must submit a request for reimbursement that includes an invoice from the provider or vendor of service.

The form used to request assistance is attached.

ASQC will issue checks once a month after the board meets on the third Thursday of the month.

In 2016, the first year for the program, ASQC provided $4,492.56 to 21 different individuals in our service area.

ASQC RECEIVES GRANTS, GIFT

ASQC has received two grants in recent months.

A $2,000 grant from the Hussman Foundation will provide swim lessons and art lessons for persons on the autism spectrum. Swim lessons are available at the Davenport Family YMCA, the North High Davenport YMCA branch, the Bettendorf YMCA branch, and the Rock Island Fitness and Activity Center.

Art lessons are available through Mid Coast Fine Arts.

The I-80 Group made a $500 grant for the same purposes.

Details are in the following story (Swim lessons and Art lessons are available).

The Iowa State Council, Knights of Columbus, made a $2,193.39 gift to ASQC for our work with persons on the spectrum. The gift was through the Knights of Columbus Our Lady of the River Council # 13084

SWIM LESSONS AND ART CLASSES ARE AVAILABLE

Thanks to grants from the Hussman Family Foundation and the I-80 Group the Autism Society of the Quad Cities is able to underwrite the cost of swim lessons for persons on the spectrum.

- ASQC will issue a check to each of these organizations for an amount of money that is to be restricted for swim lessons. The Scott County Family YMCA will administer funds for all three Iowa locations.
- A parent or guardian who wishes to enroll their child for lessons will contact ASQC (by phone, mail, or e-mail) to request funding.
- ASQC will issue a voucher on our letterhead authorizing the use of funds for swim lesson.
- The parent or guardian can present the letter for credit when they register their child for swim lessons.

ASQC will pay at the start of services, since the YMCA's and the Rock Island Fitness and Activity Center expect payment at the start of lessons. Our practice has been to reimburse the provider after services are rendered.

GANZO'S 5K IS SATURDAY MAY 6 BENEFITS ASQC

Ganzo's Restaurant and Cantina, 3923 N. Marquette, Davenport will again benefit the Autism Society of the Quad Cities thanks to proceeds from its "Nacho Ordinary 5K" race on Saturday, May 6. Held in conjunction with the Cinco de Mayo Festival, the race kicks off at 9:00a.m. More than 1,000 runners are expected this year.

Last year Ganzo's donated $1,750 to the Autism Society for our work in education, services, and advocacy.

The Autism Society has agreed to provide volunteers for the water stations. Working at a water station is a fun and easy way to be part of the festivities. If you want to be part of this day, contact Gary Rowe at gnrowe47@gmail.com or call at 309-948-3403.

Please note that the race start area and party feature loud music and lots of commotion. It might not be comfortable for everyone.

Autism Society of the Quad Cities will host an information table at the walk as well.

2017 ANNUAL CONFERENCE IS JULY 12-15 IN MILWAUKEE

From the Autism Society: "The Autism Society's vision since our founding in 1965 is to increase the quality of life of everyone living with autism. Our 49th Annual Conference is the best way for individuals, families, educators, care givers, service providers and all concerned with ensuring basic human rights to gain insights and learn concrete strategies that allow people to interact with one another and the world in their own terms.

“The Autism Society’s Quality of Life goals are essential aspects of the human experience and we promote treatments, accommodations and acceptance with them in mind.”

“Please plan on joining us in Milwaukee this July for this one-of-a-kind opportunity to change lives! We are planning many wonderful sessions, exciting keynotes and optional social events to make your experience both educational and fun!

“Early bird registration is now open! Please click here to get in at this early rate. Additional discounts are available. The conference will take place at The Wisconsin Center which is connected by skybridge to our conference hotel The Hilton Milwaukee City Center. The Hilton is offering a special rate for our conference attendees. Please register directly with the hotel – no third party vendor is authorized by the Autism Society to book your hotel rooms.”
